

Anthony I. Butler, Esq.

Anthony I. Butler is the managing principal of Butler & Associates, a law and consulting firm based in Baltimore, MD.

As a consultant Mr. Butler advises clients on a variety of human resources and employment law issues. During his career he's helped organizations across the country in the development and implementation of strategic human resources initiatives. The list of clients Mr. Butler has helped include:

- ❑ Black & Decker (Baltimore, MD)
- ❑ Black Entertainment Television (Washington, DC)
- ❑ Edward Jones Investments (St. Louis, MO)
- ❑ Enterprise Rent-A-Car (Canada)
- ❑ Fifth Third Bank (Cincinnati, OH)
- ❑ SC Johnson (Racine, WI)

These initiatives have ranged from developing overall corporate diversity strategies - including diversity council development and awareness training, sexual harassment prevention training and investigation, the development and implementation of team building initiatives, and the development of strategic recruiting initiatives.

As a law firm, Butler & Associates assists businesses with the variety of legal issues. Mr. Butler helps organizations with Business Organization, Contracting, and Employment Law matters in addition to serving as General Counsel to the management of the organization.

Mr. Butler received his B.A. in Political Science from Truman State University and his law degree from St. Louis University School of Law, where he completed the Employment Law Certificate program and received the International Academy of Trial Lawyers Student Advocacy Award.

Mr. Butler is a member of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc, The American Bar Association, the Maryland State Bar Association, Monumental City Bar Association, and the Baltimore City Bar Association. He is also a volunteer with the Baltimore Urban Debate League, a non-profit organization that helps inner city students develop effective communication skills through competitive debate.